VOLUME XVIII INDEX

NO. 1, SPRING 1989	1-92
NO. 2, SUMMER 1989	93-196
NO. 3, FALL 1989	197-290
NO. 4, WINTER 1989	291-388

A

ACTION, 252, 257, 260, 261
Adamski, L., "Toward a Discipline of Nonprofit Administration: Report from the Clarion Conference," 279-286
Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 16, 34-35, 228-231
American Enterprise Institute (AEI), 205
American welfare state: demographic changes in, 17-19; and family service agencies, 40; and future of voluntary sector, 11-12; and organizational validity, 37-40; and poverty, 18-19; and private social services (study), 25-43; producer/consumer subsidies in, 15-17; realities of, 12-13; resource constraints in, 13-14; trends in structure of, 13-19; and voluntary sector, 11-23, 25-46
Americans for Democratic Action, 229
Articles: "The Community Center as a Human Service Organization," 47-61; "Consumer Participation in Health Planning: Policy and Political Implications," 147-165; "Critical Events in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations: Initial Evidence," 119-132; "The Culture of Elite Philanthropy in the Reagan Years," 237-248; "Dimensions of Interdependence: The State and Voluntary-Sector Relationship," 335-347; "The Governing Body Role: Problems and Perceptions in Implementation," 317-333; "Kindling Points of Light: Volunteering as Public Policy," 249-268; "And Lettuce Is Nonanimal: Toward a Positive Economics of Voluntary Action," 367-383; "Local Autonomy in a Franchise Age: Structural Change in National Voluntary Associations," 101-117; "Nonmonetary Rewards for Skilled Volunteer Labor: A Look at Crisis Intervention Volunteers," 167-177; "Organizational Survival in an Environment of Austerity," 211-221; "Planning as Strategy in Nonprofit Organizations: An Exploratory Study," 297-315; "Private Social Services: Obstacles to the Welfare State?" 24-45; "Prudence and Parsimony: A Regional Perspective," 223-236; "Reagan Among the Corinthians," 203-210; "Voluntary Action in the Welfare State: The Italian Case," 349-365; "The Voluntary Sector and the Future of the Welfare State," 11-24; "Volunteerism Inside Complex Organizations: Off-Duty Hospital Personnel in a Disaster," 133-145
Association of Voluntary Action Scholars (AVAS), 98, 279
Association for Volunteer Administration (AVA), 255
Associations: corporate, 103-104; federated nonprofit, 104; instrumental, 180; national nonprofit, 103; study of voluntary, membership, 179-189; trade, 103, 106
Autonomy. See Independence

B

Baughman, J. C., Trustees, Trusteeship, and the Public Good: Issues of Accountability for Hospitals, Museums, Universities, and Libraries, reviewed, 191-192
Bias, in study of nonprofit organizations, 71-73
Blacks, in urban ghettos, 18-19
Block, S. R., "Toward a Discipline of Nonprofit Administration: Report from the Clarion Conference," 279-286
Book Reviews: A Call to Civic Service, 287-290; Educating Managers of Non-

Book Reviews (continued)
profit Organizations, 385–386; Financial and Strategic Management for Nonprofit Organizations, 192–194; The First Charity, 386–388; Mapping the Third Sector: Voluntarism in a Changing Social Economy, 194–196; Trustees, Trusteeship, and the Public Good: Issues of Accountability for Hospitals, Museums, Universities, and Libraries, 191–192
Booth, A., "Community Influences on Funds Raised by Human Service Volunteers," 81–92
Bremner, R., interviewed, 3–10
Brice, H. J., Financial and Strategic Management for Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 192–194
Brown, E. P., "Nonmonetary Rewards for Skilled Volunteer Labor: A Look at Crisis Intervention Volunteers," 167–177

C

A Call to Civic Service, reviewed, 287–290
Carbone, R. F., review by, 192–194
Chambré, S. M., "Kindling Points of Light: Volunteering as Public Policy," 249–268
Charities Aid Society of New York, 20
Charity. See Generosity; Philanthropy
Chief executive officers (CEOs): board relations, 124–125; effectiveness, 128; government relations, 127; and personnel, 127–128; and program development, 125–126; study of nonprofit, 121–128
Child Welfare League of America, 40
Citizens' Advice Bureaux (CABs), 319–325
Clarion Conference, 290–286
Commentary: "Toward a Discipline of Nonprofit Administration: Report from the Clarion Conference," 279–286; "On the Independence of Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action," 95–99; "An Interview with Robert Bremner," 3–10
Commission on Private Philanthropy and Public Needs (Filer Commission), 12, 63, 64
Committee for Economic Development, 205
Commons: American, 373; economic roles in, 378; and elasticity of situations, 377; and maximization, 379–380; non-Western, 373; and perfect knowledge assumption, 377, 379; and proportion, 380–381; and renditions, 378; and role-taking theory of value, 371; and satisfaction, 380; values in, 378–381
Communities: attachment in, 82; characteristics and fund-raising, 81–82, 85–87; donors in, 82–83; factors in donation, 83–84; structural qualities of, 81–82
"The Community Center as a Human Service Organization," 47–61
Community Centers: characteristics of, 47–49; difficulties of, 52–53; goals and ideology of, 53–55; as institutional organizations, 49–50; internal structure of, 56–57; in Israel, 48–49; members, 57–58; organizational domain of, 51–52; political economy of, 49–50; and service technologies, 55–56
"Community Influences on Funds Raised by Human Service Volunteers," 81–92
Conference Board, 63
"Consumer Participation in Health Planning: Policy and Political Implications," 147–165
Consumer Price Index, 29
Cornelius, R., "Community Influences on Funds Raised by Human Service Volunteers," 81–92
"Critical Events in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations: Initial Evidence," 119–132
"The Culture of Elite Philanthropy in the Reagan Years," 237–248

D

Day care, federal spending on, 16
"Developing a Universe of Nonprofit Organizations: Methodological Considerations," 63–80

"Dimensions of Interdependence: The State and Voluntary-Sector Relationship," 335–347
"Toward a Discipline of Nonprofit Administration: Report from the Clarion Conference," 279–286
Donors. See Human service organizations: donors to

E

Economic: of common goods, 373–378; models of voluntary action, 368; nonprofit, 368–371; objective of joint action, 374; roles, 378; theory of voluntary action, 371–372; vlaue theory, 381
Economic Opportunity Act, 18
Educating Managers of Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 385–386
Efficiency, of nonprofit organizations, 112–113
Entitlement programs, 14–15

F

Family: changes in structure of, 17–18; and children's service agency study (Massachusetts), 25–43
Family service agencies: client profile of, 34; fiscal conservatism of, 28–33; interrelation with state, 37; Massachusetts study of, 27–40; medical vs. social casework model of, 36; and mental health services, 35–36; mission of, 37, 39; social advocacy in, 38–40; third-party payment in, 35; and welfare state, 40
Family Service Association of America (FSAA), 40
Federated nonprofit movements: bureaucratic factors, 111–112; central offices, 106–107, 115; and controversy, 113; demand forces, 107–112; effects of national mobility on, 108; efficiency, 112–113; flexibility, 112–113; functions of, 105–106; future, 113–116; growth, 114; interdependence, 108–109; leadership, 115–116; legal issues, 113; national competition, 110; nationalization, 109–110; nationwide problems, 109; personnel, 111; and politics, 112; restraining factors, 112–113; supply forces, 110–112. See also Nonprofit sector
Filer Commission. See Commission on Private Philanthropy and Public Needs
Financial and Strategic Management for Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 192–194
Firefighters, volunteer: attributes, 271–272; commitment, 273; department characteristics, 275; motivations, 274; organizational affiliation, 272–273; study of, 269–277
The First Charity, reviewed, 386–388
Floro, G. K., review by, 194–196
For-profit sector, vs. nonprofit sector, 22
Franchises: and national mobility, 108; and structure of voluntary associations, 101–116
Fund-raising. See Human service organizations: fund-raising in

G

Generosity: and affluence, 227; and decentralization/privatization, 226; effects on, 228–231, 233; and fair share, 225–226; and income disparity, 227; outliers, 231; shifts in regional, 228; theories on, 225–226. See also Philanthropy
Ghetto underclass. See Urban underclass
Giving. See Generosity; Philanthropy
"The Governing Body Role: Problems and Perceptions in Implementation," 317–333
Government: aid, 14–15; and federated nonprofit organizations, 112; functions, 320–325; interdependence with nonprofit organizations, 95–96; partnership of, with nonprofit sector, 12–13; regulation in health care, 152–154; relations with nonprofit CEOs, 127; relationship with nonprofits, 335–346; role of, 316–319, 325–327; spending during Reagan era, 13–15; spending on day care, 16; and staff, 324–325, 327–328; subsidies, 15–17; third-party, 15. See also Public sector

Grant, J. A., "Consumer Participation in Health Planning: Policy and Political Implications," 147–165
Graying, of population, 17
Gronbjerg, K. A., "Developing a Universe of Nonprofit Organizations: Methodological Considerations," 63–80

H

Harris, M., "The Governing Body Role: Problems and Perceptions in Implementation," 317–333
Hasenfeld, Y., "The Community Center as a Human Service Organization," 47–61
Health care: in Alameda–Contra Costa Counties (California), 157–159; changes in, 126; consumer participation in, 147–164; cost containment, 161, 163; and equal health, 151; government involvement in, 152–153; and HSAs, 147, 149, 153–154; and HSP, 149; organizations, 299, 302; and P.L. 93-641, 153–154; planning programs, 149–150; in Santa Clara County (California), 155–156; and state control, 163; structural interests, 151–152; study of, agencies, 154–161; volunteerism in, 133–143; in West Bay Health Systems Agency (San Francisco), 159–161
Health system agencies (HSAs), 147, 149
Heimovics, R. D., "Critical Events in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations: Initial Evidence," 119–132
Herman, R. D., "Critical Events in the Management of Nonprofit Organizations: Initial Evidence," 119–132
Higgins, D., "Community Influences on Funds Raised by Human Service Volunteers," 81–92
Human service directories, 73–76
Human service organizations: bias in study of, 71–72; community centers as, 47–60; directories/lists of, 73–76; and disasters, 133–143; donors to, 82–83; fund-raising in, 81–91; volunteers in, 81–91, 133–143, 168–174. See also Nonprofit organizations

I

Independence: local, in voluntary sector, 101–116, 112; of voluntary research, 98–99
"On the Independence of Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action," 95–99
Independent Sector, 255, 279
Independent sector. See Nonprofit sector
"An Interview with Robert Bremner," 3–10
Israel, community centers in (study of), 48–58
Israeli Association of Community Centers, 48, 51
Italy, welfare system in, 349–364

J

Johnson, R. M., The First Charity, reviewed, 386–388

K

"Kindling Points of Light: Volunteering as Public Policy," 249–268
Korn, B., "National Trends in Voluntary Association Memberships: 1974–1984," 179–190
Kraemer, J., review by, 287–290

L

Leadership: and charity, 241; in federated nonprofit movements, 115–116; studies of nonprofit CEOs, 121–128. See also Chief executive officers (CEOs)
"And Lettuce Is Nonanimal: Toward a Positive Economics of Voluntary Action," 367–383
"Local Autonomy in a Franchise Age: Structural Change in National Voluntary Associations," 101–117
Lohmann, R. A., "And Lettuce Is Nonanimal: Toward a Positive

Economics of Voluntary Action," 367–383
Lyman, R. W., "Reagan Among the Corinthians," 203–210

M

McCarthy, K. D., Special Issue: Philanthropy in the Reagan Years, 199–201; 199–268
Management: during austerity era, 218–219; committees, 317–318, 320–326; nonprofit, theories, 368; in nonprofit organizations, 119–131, 192–194; norms, 309; and organizational planning, 297–314; professionalization of, 300. See also Chief executive officers (CEOs)
Managers: autonomy, 311; nonplanning, 305; nonprofit, and planning, 303–306; and professional organizations, 309–310
Mapping the Third Sector: Voluntarism in a Changing Social Economy, reviewed, 194–196
Masachusetts, nonprofit family and children's service agencies in (study), 27–40
Moskos, C. C., A Call to Civic Service, reviewed, 287–290

N

National Alliance of Business (NAB), 203–204
National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), 104–105
National Center for Charitable Statistics, 63
National Center for Voluntary Action, 255
National Health Planning Resources Development Act, 147
National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities, 64
"National Trends in Voluntary Association Memberships: 1974–1984," 179–190
Natural disasters, 133–143
Needy, assistance to, 21–22. See also Poverty
Neighborhood preservation companies (NPCs), 212–213
Neighborhood Preservation Program (NPP), 212–215, 217
"Nonmonetary Rewards for Skilled Volunteer Labor: A Look at Crisis Intervention Volunteers," 167–177
Nonprofit administrators: affective character, 285; Clarion Conference of, 280–282; mission MOM, 285; organizational knowledge, 284; program knowledge, 284; sector knowledge, 284; skills, 285; values, 282–284. See also Nonprofit sector
Nonprofit organizations (NPOs): arts and cultural, 75; bias in study of, 71–72; churches and sacramental, 76; community and ethnic, 74–75; donors, 82–83; evaluating, 69–76; fund-raising, 81–91; recognition, 78–79; schools and educational, 75. See also Human service organizations; Nonprofit sector
Nonprofit sector: administration, 343; administrators, 279–286; area-sampling approach to study of, 77–78; CEOs, 121–128; characteristics, 66–67; charitable, 300–301; commercialization, 20–21; competition of, with for-profit sector, 22; corporatizing, 298; cultural, 303, 341; decentralization, 223; dependence issues, 336; economics, 368; evaluating, organizations, 69–76; failure, 225; federal assistance, 14–17; federal intervention in, 224; and funding, 226, 308, 322–323; fund-raising, 127; goal ambiguity in, 298; and government, 335–346; growth of, 19–20; hourglass configuration of, 330; independence of, research, 95–99; interdependence, 95–96, 337, 339–342; and IRS, 70–73; and legitimacy, 312–341; management of, organizations, 119–131; management theory, 368; membership approach to study of, 78–79; mental health, 302, 341; methodological considerations, 63–79; national-level, 103; national service plan, 287; nationalization, 109–110; organizational validity of, 26, 37–40; personnel, 127; planning

Nonprofit sector (continued)
in (study), 287–314; and policy-making boards, 306–307, 321–322; political analysis of, 368–369; and politics, 337, 342–343; and power elite, 238; and private businesses, 66; and profit organizations, 309–310; program development, 125–126; reorganization of aid in, 21–22; resource dependence, 130–131; resource exchange, 339–340; sampling frames, 65–67; staff, 324–325, 340; technical problems of, 64; trustees, 191–192; types A and B, 370; values, 282–284; and volunteers, 344; and youth service plan, 288–289. See also Federated nonprofit movements; Human service organizations; Nonprofit administrators; Voluntary action; Voluntary sector
Nonprofit Sector Project, 65
Not-for-profits (NFPs): during austerity, 211–212, 214, 218; and funding cap, 213–217; and government obligations, 212; and institutional entitlement, 216–217; nonhomogeneity, 217; organizational domain, 213–214; and organizational effectiveness, 216; relationship with donors, 211–221; salary levels, 218; self-sufficiency, 214–215. See also Nonprofit sector; Voluntary sector

O

Odendahl, T., "The Culture of Elite Philanthropy in the Reagan Years," 237–248
O'Neill, M., Educating Managers of Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 385–386
"Organizational Survival in an Environment of Austerity," 211–221
Organizations: interdependence, 337–339; isomorphism of, 299–300; legitimacy, 312, 341; planning, 297–314; structure, 329–330; survival of, during austerity, 211–221; theory, 336–338
Ostrander, S. A., "Private Social Services: Obstacles to the Welfare State?" 24–45

P

Palisi, B. J., "National Trends in Voluntary Association Memberships: 1974–1984," 179–190
Parkum, V. C., review by, 386–388
Pasquinelli, S., "Voluntary Action in the Welfare State: The Italian Case," 349–365
Performance, and planning, 298–299
Pereira, J. W., Special Issue: Philanthropy in the Reagan Years, 199–201, 199–268
Perkins, K. B., "Volunteer Firefighters in the United States: A Descriptive Study," 269–277
Philanthropists: beliefs, 240–241; lifestyles, 238–239; motives, 240–241; psychological characteristics, 239–240; and wealth distribution, 243–246
Philanthropy: and affluence/generosity, 227; culture of, 237–240; economic role of, 64; effects on, 228–231; elite, 237–248; and fair share, 225–226; and government, 12; and income disparities, 227; and nonprofit administrators, 283; and nonprofit sector, 224; and Reagan administration, 209, 237–248; shifts in regional, 228; and wealth disparities, 243– 246. See also Generosity
Philanthropy in the Reagan Years, Special Issue, 199–201; 199–268
Planning: documents, 311; and environmental factors, 306–310; formal, methods, 303; and funding, 308; indicators for, 305; informal, methods, 303; long-range, 303; models, 309; and nonprofit managers, 303–306; in nonprofit organizations (study), 297–314; operational, 303–304; and organizational factors, 300; and performance, 298–299; and reorganization, 311; results of, 310–312; strategic, 298–299, 303–304
"Planning as Strategy in Nonprofit Organizations: An Exploratory Study," 297–315
Population: density and fund-raising, 82; donations by type of, 83; graying of, 17, 83; rapid growth of, 82, 90

Poverty: explanations of, 18–19; and fund-raising, 87; and nonprofit aid, 21–22
Private sector. See For-profit sector
"Private Social Services: Obstacles to the Welfare State?" 24–45
Privatization: and convergence theory, 224; counterarguments, 225; of nonprofit sector, 224; progress in, 226
Program on Nonprofit Organizations at Yale University, 64
"Prudence and Parsimony: A Regional Perspective," 223–236
Public assistance programs, 13, 14, 15, 34–35
Public sector: and generosity, 227–228; and private sector partnerships, 205; privatization of, 15. See also Government

R

Reagan administration: budget reductions, 205; decentralization agenda, 226; and elite philanthropy, 237–248; and homelessness, 245; and philanthropy, 209; and volunteerism, 256–258; and welfare programs, 13, 63, 241–242
"Reagan Among the Corinthians," 203–210
Reiner, T. A., "Organizational Survival in an Environment of Austerity," 211–221
Research Notes: "Community Influences on Funds Raised by Human Service Volunteers," 81–92; "Developing a Universe of Nonprofit Organizations: Methodological Considerations," 63–80; "National Trends in Voluntary Association Memberships: 1874–1984," 179–190; "Volunteer Firefighters in the United States: A Descriptive Study," 269–277
Research, nonprofit sector, 95–99, 134
Rubin, H., "Toward a Discipline of Nonprofit Administration: Report from the Clarion Conference," 279–286; review by, 385–386

S

Saidel, J. R., "Dimensions of Interdependence: The State and Voluntary-Sector Relationship," 335–347
Salamon, L. M., "The Voluntary Sector and the Future of the Welfare State," 11–24
Schmid, H., "The Community Center as a Human Service Organization," 47–61
Social Security Act, 18
Social Services Block Grant, 16
Special Issue: Philanthropy in the Reagan Years, 199–201; 199–268
Stallings, R. A., "Volunteerism Inside Complex Organizations: Off-Duty Hospital Personnel in a Disaster," 133–145
Stone, M. M., "Planning as Strategy in Nonprofit Organizations: An Exploratory Study," 297–315
Strategic planning. See Planning: strategic Strategy models, 299

T

Task Force on Private-Sector Initiatives: as action group, 208; communities, 206; composition, 204; and conservative rhetoric, 208–209; and public-private partnerships, 205; purpose, 204
Tax-exempt organizations, 65, 70–73
Trustees, Trusteeship, and the Public Good: Issues of Accountability for Hospitals, Museums, Universities, and Libraries, reviewed, 191–192

U

United Way fund-raising campaigns (study of), 81–91
Urban Institute Nonprofit Sector Project, 12, 65
Urban underclass, 18

V

Van Til, J., "On the Independence of

Van Til, J. (continued)
Research on Nonprofit Organizations and Voluntary Action," 95–99; "An Interview with Robert Bremner," 3–10; Mapping the Third Sector: Voluntarism in a Changing Social Economy, reviewed, 194–196
Voluntarism: analyzing, 363; associations, 254–257; characteristics of, 350; defined, 348; in Italy, 349–364; meaning of, 250–251; new forms of, 355–356; problems facing, 356–357; professionalization of, 255; and Reagan administration, 209; research, 354; and research theory, 356–357; traditional, 355; vs. volunteerism, 270. See also Voluntary action; Voluntary sector; Volunteerism; Volunteers
Voluntary action: association, 98; and collaboration, 362; core of, 371; defined, 348; in disasters, 133–143; economic model, 368; economic theory of, 371–372; impediments/enhancements to, 138, 141; in Italy, 349–364; negative theories of, 367–369; noncommercial, 369; and organizational roles, 141; and politics, 361; positive theory of, 373–378; research on, 95–99, 134; researchers, 98; and work role, 137, 140, 141. See also Voluntarism; Voluntary sector; Volunteerism; Volunteers
Voluntary Action Centers (VACs), 255
"Voluntary Action in the Welfare State: The Italian Case," 349–365
Voluntary sector: action, 360–361; and community characteristics, 85–87; economics, 368, 381; and economy, 194–196; expansion, 249–250; expectations cycles in, 327–328; failure, 225; historic analysis, 362–363; independence of, research, 95–99; interdependence of, with state, 25–26; in Italy, 349–364; local autonomy in, 101–116; monitoring in, 323–324, 329; and paradigms of partnership and competition, 11; policymaking in, 321–322; and politics, 361; and public agencies, 357–360; random state, 335–346; role, 253; role of governing body in, 317–332; and social advocacy, 38–40; staff, 324–325, 340; structure, 329–330; studies, 97; study of, 102–116; study of, association membership, 179–189; symbolic dimension, 360; in United Kingdom (study), 319–325; vs. volunteer organizations, 270; and welfare state, 11–23, 25–46. See also Nonprofit sector; Voluntarism; Voluntary action; Voluntary sector; Volunteerism; Volunteers
"The Voluntary Sector and the Future of the Welfare State," 11–24
VOLUNTEER, 225
"Volunteer Firefighters in the United States: A Descriptive Study," 269–277
Volunteerism: changes in, 254–256; and community service, 254; in crisis intervention organizations, 167–175; during Kennedy-Johnson administrations, 251–252; meaning of, 250–251; and natural disasters, 133–143; during 1970s, 252–253; participation, 258–262; policies toward, 251–253; and private sector, 257–258; and public policies, 265–266; and Reagan administration, 256–258, 262–265; reasons for increase in, 253–254; studies of, 258–259; and taxes, 263; vs. voluntarism, 270. See also Voluntarism; Voluntary action; Voluntary Sector Volunteers
"Volunteerism Inside Complex Organizations: Off-Duty Hospital Personnel in a Disaster," 133–145
Volunteers: elderly, 254–255; firefighting, 269–277; fund-raising by human service, 81–91; increase in, 253–254; investment motive, 172; motives, 250–251, 263–264; and MRS, 168, 170; nonmonetary rewards, 167–175; nonprofit sector, 344; participation of, 258–262; psychic rewards, 173–174; reallocation of, 265; recruitment of, 90, 255; and reflective research, 363; study of, in crisis intervention, 168–174; study of, response to disaster, 136–141; and taxes, 175; training, 169, 356;

vision, 359–360; wage rate, 174; women, 261–262. See also Voluntarism; Voluntary Action; Voluntary sector; Volunteerism
Voucher-type programs, 15–16

W

Welfare: and AFDC payments, 228–231; changes in social, spending, 14–15; in Italy, 349–364; means-tested, programs, 14; in metro areas, 227; and Reagan administration cutbacks, 241–242; state, 12–19. See also Welfare state
Welfare state: and economic inequality, 244; Italian, 351–352; and Reagan administration, 209; right-wing view of, 207. See also Welfare
Wolpert, J., "Prudence and Parsimony: A Regional Perspective," 223–236
Women: changes in position of, 17; in labor force, 17, 91; volunteers, 261–262

Y

Young, D. R., Educating Managers of Nonprofit Organizations, reviewed, 385–386; "Local Autonomy in a Franchise Age: Structural Change in National Voluntary Associations," 101–117; review by, 191–192

Z

Zahrly, J., "Nonmonetary Rewards for Skilled Volunteer Labor: A Look at Crisis Intervention Volunteers," 167–177